

TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1844.

SENATE.

Mr. SEVIER presented the petition of 100 citizens of Arkansas for the establishment of Fort Wayne, on the borders of that State.

Mr. STURGEON, the memorial of a number of citizens of western and northwestern Pennsylvania, in favor of the reduction of postage.

The joint resolution introduced by Mr. TAPPAN, for limiting to seven years the tenure of office of the Judges of the Supreme and circuit courts of the United States to seven years, was, on his motion, made the special order of the day for the 2d Monday in March.

Mr. TAPPAN submitted a resolution that the Secretary of the Navy furnish the Senate with a copy of the proceedings in the case of Alexander S. Mackenzie.

CONSULS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Mr. SEMPLE, by leave, introduced a bill for remodeling the consular establishment of the United States. Mr. S. said it was an important bill. The Chamber of Commerce of New York had recently memorialized Congress on the subject. He therefore moved that 500 extra copies of the bill be printed for the information of merchants and others interested in the matter.

RAILROAD IRON.

Mr. EVANS, from the Committee on Finance, reported a bill for the remission of duties, in certain cases, on railroad iron.

MR. McDUFFIE'S BILL.

Mr. BATES addressed the Senate in continuation of this debate, and replied to some reflections made by Mr. Woodbury upon Massachusetts, which, as a Senator from Massachusetts, he said he could not allow to pass unnoticed.

After he concluded, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. KENNEDY introduced Mr. WETHERED, a colleague of his, and one of the General Ticket recently elected in Maryland.

On motion of Mr. ADAMS, the use of the Hall was granted to the American Bible Society for Wednesday evening next.

The SPEAKER announced as the first business in order the motion of Mr. C. J. INGERSOLL for reconsidering the vote by which the resolutions upon the Oregon were referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. This subject was postponed until to-morrow.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

Mr. DUNCAN, of Ohio, on leave, presented a memorial from citizens of his State praying Congress to provide by law that the choice of Electors for the above elections shall take place simultaneously throughout the Union. [This memorial seemed to excite a general interest, irrespective of party.] A proposition to this effect having been submitted at an early period of the session, which was referred to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, Mr. D. moved to discharge the committee from its consideration, and that it be made the special order of the day for Wednesday next: Mr. DROMGOOLE (by reason of the appropriation bills) suggested a postponement of a fortnight from to-day, which was agreed to—95 ayes, noes not counted.

Resolutions from the Kentucky Legislature in favor of the reduction of postage, were received and referred.

On motion, Mr. Wilkins's place on the Judiciary Committee was ordered to be filled by the Speaker.

RULES AND ORDERS.

Mr. BURT, of South Carolina, was entitled to the floor on this subject. He singled out Mr. Beardsley, of New York; and in reference to that gentleman's remark, that "in regard to the abstract question of slavery, he presumed there was but one opinion East, West, North, and South," he knew not where the gentleman derived his opinion as to other sections of the country; but, in regard to the South, and particularly the State he in part represented, the gentleman should not speak—he knew nothing of the opinion of the South, and his inference was impertinent, &c.

Mr. BEARDSLEY rose to reply.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from South Carolina yield the floor?

Mr. BURT. I do, for explanation.

Mr. BEARDSLEY. Do I understand the honorable member—does he apply the term impertinent to me for having expressed an opinion, not as to slavery itself, but of the fact that but one opinion was held anywhere in regard to the institution of slavery—is it for this I am charged with being impertinent?

[Every ear was wide open for the response.]

Mr. BURT. I have said!

Mr. BEARDSLEY. Then I find it back upon the member. Things have come to a pretty pass, when an opinion cannot be expressed upon any subject without its being denounced as impertinent. Strange, indeed, if a member in the discharge of his duty here cannot express an opinion upon any subject brought up for consideration. Mr. B. was proceeding with much warmth in this strain, when

Mr. PAYNE called him to order. He desired to know if the member from New York could thus consume the time of the member from South Carolina.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from South Carolina yielded the floor.

Here some words, not distinctly heard, passed between Mr. Payne and Mr. Beardsley.

The SPEAKER called to order.

Mr. BURT proceeded, and said he had made a remark here which he would be responsible for elsewhere. He (Mr. B.) had spoken of an institution with which he and his constituents were identified—of an institution concerning which his own good judgment and that of his constituents will not permit him to speak here. Mr. B. animatedly upon the North with much severity—the miserable, upstart, huxtering morality of the North, as he called it. He cast back every word and epithet which came from the North; he pronounced many of the opinions which he heard against slavery as so many irreconcilable and indefensible dogmas. He warned the North that the rejection of the 25th rule would be considered by the South as equivalent to a declaration of war—it would lead to this, and to revolution. If insurrections came, and those who caused them went South, not a wretch should return to tell the story of his disaster.

The floor was next obtained by Mr. DELLET, of Ala., and the subject passed over until to-morrow.

CHARLESTON CUSTOMHOUSE.

Mr. HOLMES, of S. C., reported a bill for the repair of the customhouse in Charleston, S. C. Several bills from the Senate were read and referred.

INDIAN APPROPRIATION BILL.

On motion of Mr. McKAY, of N. C., the House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, Mr. CAMPBELL, of S. C., in the Chair.

After a brief discussion, the bill was laid aside to be favorably reported to the House.

The pension bill was then taken up and debated, and, without coming to any conclusion on it, the committee rose.

The Indian appropriation bill was then passed.

Mr. HUNT, of N. Y., moved that when the House adjourn, it should do so to meet on Friday; this motion was rejected, and the House adjourned.

NOTICE.—The Campbells are coming! Hard to beat! Fair play and no gouging!—No monopoly!—BEEF! BEEF! BEEF!—To my old friends and fellow citizens, and the public generally—I return thanks to you all for the kind patronage you have extended to me since I have catered for you in the Centre Market, and now make known to you that I (in addition to my stalls in old Centre Market, next to Mr. James Rhodes's, and opposite Frederick Hagar's) have a store on the corner of 6th street and Pennsylvania avenue, where, at all times, I have on hand the best assortment of Beef, both fresh and salt, that can be procured in this city. I now have for slaughter 80 head of fat cattle, raised and fed by Hamilton Rodgers, Esq., and 60 head of spayed heifers, raised and fed by Tibbalt, (both of which gentlemen are the best feeders of cattle in Virginia,) and drove with the greatest care by Robert L. Armstead and Bascable, and purchased for me by a gentleman of this city who is admitted to be the best judge of good Beef in the United States; and will have, commencing on Saturday morning, and continuing each market morning thereafter, a portion of said extraordinary fine Beef, at 64 cents per pound, first cuts.

All boarding houses and families who are fond of good living will give me a call, for I am convinced if you once call you will assuredly purchase.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALM OF LIVERWORT, prepared at 375 Bowery, New York, is justly celebrated as the most wonderful curative of pulmonary diseases in the whole range of pharmacy, some of our most respectable physicians use it in their practice, prescribing it as the best of all remedies for pulmonary complaints and physical debility, and they unhesitatingly recommend it to be kept in every family of a consumptive tendency. It is universally received as one of the standard medicines of the day. The great merit of Dr. Taylor's Balm is, that in all cases of pulmonary complaints it gives immediate relief. A single bottle will, in most cases, reveal its astonishing virtues, and open at once the fountain of health and strength to the afflicted. Read the following certificate:

"Being constitutionally predisposed to Consumption, (a number of my family having died with this disease) and having suffered from irritation of the Lungs, accompanied with cough and raising matter and blood, together with severe pain in my side and breast, till I was supposed to be beyond recovery, I was induced by advice of Dr. Perkins, as a last resort, to try 'Taylor's Balm of Liverwort,' I have taken five bottles in all. I began to improve with the first bottle, and while taking the third, was so far recovered as to be able to get about. Since which time, by continued use of it, I am quite restored, and able to attend to my usual business. To persons suffering from coughs and affections of the Lungs, I do earnestly recommend it."
(Signed) "JAS. C. SCOTT."
ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Dec. 16, 1842.

Observe.—The only genuine Taylor's Balm of Liverwort has an engraved label around each bottle, with the signature of Dr. Gordon J. Leeds, attached, to prevent counterfeits. In order to be certain of obtaining the genuine article, purchase only at the original office, 375 Bowery.
